THE TASK AT HAND

You have a table in Confluence that's so large, readers have to scroll to see all the information:

Example: SOW product descriptions as of 07/12/18 (plus a couple extra columns for demo purposes)

Product	Product Description	Owner(s)	Updated by	Lasted Updated	Reviewed	Additional column 1	Additional column 2	Additional column 3
				Jun 4 2018	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Product Marketing	Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, id nec voluptua fabellas.	Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, id nec voluptua fabellas.	Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, id nec voluptua fabellas.
				Jun 4 2018	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Product Marketing	Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, id nec voluptua fabellas.	Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, id nec voluptua fabellas.	Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, id nec voluptua fabellas.

FREEZE ROWS AND COLUMNS

Excel lets you do this; but Confluence?

FREEZE ROWS AND COLUMNS

USE THE TABLE ENHANCER MACRO!

Tableenhancer | decimalMark = . (point) | numberOfFixedRows = 1 | numberOfFixedColumns = 1

3. INSERT THE MACRO

From the Insert menu, select to search for the macro browser.

SEARCH FOR AND SELECT TABLEENHANCER

The screenshot shows a 'Select macro' dialog box. At the top right, there is a search input field containing the text 'tableen' and a 'Help' button. On the left side, there is a vertical list of categories: All, Administration, Communication, Confluence content, Development, External content, Formatting, Media, Navigation, Reporting, Visuals & images, and Hidden. The 'All' category is selected. In the center, a yellow highlighted box contains the 'Tableenhancer' macro. To the left of the macro name is a small icon of a table with three rows and three columns, with the numbers 1, 2, and 3 in the first column. To the right of the icon, the text reads: 'Tableenhancer' followed by 'The Tableenhancer macro provides enhancements for a normal table such as initial sorting by a supplied column or automatic row'. A mouse cursor is pointing at the bottom of this highlighted box. At the bottom left of the dialog, there is a link that says 'Find more macros...' with a magnifying glass icon. At the bottom right, there is a 'Cancel' button.

SET MACRO PROPERTIES

Row numbering, background color, etc.

Insert 'Tableenhancer' Macro

The Tableenhancer macro provides enhancements for a normal table such as initial sorting by a supplied column or automatic row numbering. You can find a more detailed documetation of parameters here.

Row numbering

Adds a consecutive number starting with 1 as first cell to every row. Options:

- none: no numbering
- onceBeforeSorting: once before initial sorting
- independentFromSorting: completely independent from every sorting
- onceAfterSorting: once after initial sorting
